In memory of our God, our founders, and in defense of our freedoms, families, and a firm commitment towards future generations, I solemnly promise and pledge:

To openly declare that our rights come from God, not government ▪ To make quality family life my highest priority ▪ To study the US Constitution and the principles of freedom it maintain ▪ To advance the principles of freedom in my home, community, and through my vote ▪ To educate and nurture the rising generation within my sphere of influence toward good and moral pursuits.
