

DECLARATION OF

mothers

A proclamation and a pledge for the preservation of Liberty and Virtue

See the full proclamation at MomsforAmerica.us

In memory of our God, our founders, our freedoms, and our families, and with a firm commitment towards future generations, I solemnly promise and pledge:

To openly declare that our rights come from God, not government • To make quality family life my highest priority • To study and defend the US Constitution and the principles of freedom that it maintains • To live a virtuous, moral, and upright life • To educate and nurture the rising generation within my sphere of influence toward good and moral pursuits.

Signature & Date _____