

Our Year in Review~

This has been a very eventful year for HomeMakers for America. The big event started in February when God put it on hearts to launch a Mom's March for America—a movement of mothers to reclaim our culture for truth, family, and freedom. We answered the call which consumed much of our time but were somehow, through the Grace of God, we were able to accomplish all our other goals, projects and objectives for the year as well. Your investment in the future of our nation reaped a bounteous harvest this year and with our 2018 goals and projects, next year will be even better!

2018 Events

Our big event for the year was, of course, the Mom's March for America held in Omaha, Nebraska and broadcast live across the nation. Thousands of moms in over 3,000 cities gathered in homes, churches, and parks to watch or listen to the live streamed broadcast. IBM serviced the video livestream and The Answer Omaha simulcast the audio stream. Over 500 attended the live event at the Ralston Arena—many of them young mothers with babes in arms. It was an incredible event to launch a powerful movement of mothers to reclaim our culture.

Speakers at the Mom's March included Sarah Palin, Candy Carson, Sam Sorbo, Missy Robertson, Karen Vaughn, and many other awesome moms—all donating their time to be a part of this historic event. We were blown away and deeply moved by the many comments we received, both in person at the event and through email following, thanking us for holding the Mom's March and pleading with us to do it again. So, we've answered the call once again and have scheduled the next Mom's March for November 2nd & 3rd in Georgetown Texas (just north of Austin). We are in the process of securing sponsors and reaching out to potential speakers. Visit MomsMarchUSA.com for updates.

Ring the Bells!

We were thrilled to partner with the Museum of the Bible for their Grand Opening this year. HomeMakers for America and our Mom's March partners joined the celebration with a national ringing of the bells to "Let Freedom Ring!" On November 17th at 11:17, we held a Facebook Live event at the Museum of the Bible where Candy Carson, Martha Boneta, and Donna Rice Hughes hosted the event and rang the 3200 pound exact replica of the Liberty Bell. Churches across America rang their bells at the same time and families joined with their children and rang bells right along with Facebook Live event. We created a "Let Freedom Ring" booklet for families with stories and activities to help them understand what "Let Freedom Ring" means.

Sharing the Light!

In December we partnered with Sam and Kevin Sorbo to promote their film "Let There Be Light" and the app that accompanies the film. We created a Family Advent Book for families to download and share the light through 25 Days of Stories, Scriptures and Service. This was a big hit with moms seeking to bring the spirit of giving back into their family's Christmas.

Publications & Media

Liberty Vine

We are thrilled to announce the relaunch and new format of our Liberty Vine Quarterly Newsletter. The Liberty Vine will still include all the great articles and resources you've come to know and love, but now it will also include stories and activities families can share together to fan the flames of liberty in the hearts of our children.

Cottage Meeting Resource Guide

Cottage Meetings have exploded and we have received a lot of great feedback on our Cottage Meeting Resource Guide and Hostess Kit. This was the one project we didn't get to in 2017 but at the top of our list for 2018 is a Cottage Meeting Resource Guide Facelift. We have all the pieces in place, the gentleman to do the work and currently seeking funding for the project. The new guide will be more professional and much more user-friendly for busy moms and families. It is also a big seller which will help us move toward our goal of becoming self-funded.

On the Homefront

Realizing the powerful influence of media in shaping the culture, HomeMakers for America president, Kimberly Fletcher, launched a radio show this year "On the Homefront" which airs on The Answer Omaha 94.5 FM 1420 AM in Omaha, Nebraska. The show has a national audience through iHeart radio and social media. Shows are uploaded to SoundCloud and archived on HomefrontRadio.com so moms can download and listen whenever and wherever it fits in their busy schedule. We have received a great response from the many moms who tune in to the show to hear about issues of the day, timeless truths of yesterday and how it all impacts them and their families.

2018 Projects

Declaration of Mothers

The Declaration of Mothers, released in May of this year, will be a big focus in 2018. Thousands of women in over 4,000 cities and every state in America have signed the Declaration and we are just beginning. We partnered with CitizenGo and several family & freedom focused organizations to circulate the Declaration in petition. In February, 2018 we will be presenting the Declaration to Congress in a press conference in Washington D.C. We are working with several international women's groups to create a Worldwide Declaration of Mothers which we will present at the UN Women's Conference in March. All this leads up to Mom March and our International Mother's Influence Day, March 8th where we counter the feminists "Day without A Woman" with "A Day With A Mother."

MomVote

With the 2018 Midterm elections around the corner, we are launching a new project "Mom Vote." We have become increasingly concerned with the number of conservative, God-fearing women who are not registered to vote and/or aren't voting. In partnership with our dear friends at Phyllis Schlafly Eagles, we are launching a national voter registration effort leading up to our Mom's March event November 2 & 3 and our big push encouraging moms to get out and vote.

2018 will be a big year for HomeMakers for America and our nation. Of course all these things take funding and greatly appreciate your support.
