

YEAR IN REVIEW

REPORT

MomsforAmerica.us

... from the Founder & President

Dear Friends & Supporters,

“These are the times that try men’s souls.” Those were the words of Thomas Paine 250 years ago amid the battle for independence. It is the same sentiment sweeping across the country today as many of us see the direction our nation is heading and wonder if there is any hope for America. Yet, amidst the challenges, a remarkable movement is emerging—one that fills me with hope like never before.

It is a collective uprising of women—not the kind we’ve seen in the past with pink hats and screaming demands. This is a movement of mothers, fueled by a shared commitment to protect their children and champion truth and freedom. Witnessing the transformation in these mothers, seeing the spark of hope light up in their eyes when they hear our message and attend our events, reaffirms what we already know: they are the hope for America!

I had an opportunity to meet an amazing woman this year. Her name is Ali Miner, and she is the artist that painted the picture on this page. The moment I saw it I knew it had a special purpose. When I asked her what she planned to do with the painting she said, “I don’t know. God told me to paint it so I guess He will tell me what to do with it.”

I am thrilled to announce Ali has gifted her work to Moms for America. You will soon see this image flooding across the nation reminding everyone America Is Worth Saving!

Next year is our 20th Anniversary. It is a significant year with critical elections, and we are engaging and mobilizing moms like never before. We know we face massive challenges, but we have been preparing for this day and we are ready to meet those challenges.

We look forward to celebrating our anniversary with you next year and continuing empowering moms, promoting liberty, and raising patriots as we reclaim our culture and restore our beautiful Republic.

In Truth & Liberty,

CPAC March 1-4

We were pleased to be a part of CPAC as a major sponsor again this year. We made great connections and had a huge presence. We are so grateful for those who made our attendance possible and our experience exceptional.

Because of our participation in CPAC and our sponsorship of the Women's Breakfast, where we interviewed Riley Gaines, we were able to support her via social media in a big way when she came under attack.

Legacy Awards Gala

Our Gala in Branson was a HUGE success! We presented Kirk Cameron and other great patriots our Legacy Award and had moms from 11 states attend. It was a highly inspiring event, and Kirk was extremely impressed with our Cottage Meetings and blown away by the role he didn't even know he had played in inspiring the program. The next day, we had a training day with several of our mom leaders and then went to one of Branson's top shows that night. It was clear after the event that Branson should be the location for our annual convention that we plan to hold in September each year. It is a great central location for moms to drive in and stay the weekend—a great getaway for inspiration and empowerment. Following the event, Kirk asked if we could set up a meeting so he could “glean from my wisdom and experience.” That was quite surprising. We recently had our meeting, and it was amazing. He is thrilled with what we are doing and wants to be a part of promoting the Cottage Meetings and working together to heal our nation from the inside out! Again, HUGE success with GREAT return!

Cottage Meetings & Moms for America Groups

Our online and in-home Cottage Meetings have grown exponentially. Moms across the country are catching the fire of freedom through these small group meetings as they invite friends and neighbors to gather in their homes or join us live online for any one of our virtual series. Classes can also be downloaded to listen or view at no charge.

Our live online series (using zoom) have seen tremendous growth. These include the original 12 Cottage Meetings, Healing of America 16-part series and the 5,000 Year Leap. Registrations for these online classes increased a whopping 423% in 2023! Our Fall Cottage Meeting series was led by our very own Founder and President, Kimberly Fletcher. You can view the video here.

Moms love the mom-to-mom, heart-based focus of the Cottage Meetings. Through inspiring stories, personal experiences, and relatable examples, moms learn the true story of America, the principles of liberty, the Constitution, what their rights are, where they come from, and how to effectively exercise them.

Cottage Meetings are the spark that get these moms excited, infuses them with hope and leads them to activation. But don't take our word for it. Hear what moms are saying about the impact of the Cottage Meetings.

Kirk Cameron highly recommends the Cottage Meeting Project. Here what he has to say. Click here to view video.

Moms for America Resources

Our resources continue to grow with booklets that are free to download. Current booklets include topics such as Gender Confusion, Social Emotional Learning (SEL), and our Grammy Grizzlies Guide. They are now all available in Spanish as well. You can read and download any of our booklets here.

Moms for America Español

We are so excited with our new expanding Hispanic Outreach! We now have a whole starter kit for Spanish-speaking moms. We completed the Spanish translations for our CRT Guide, Parental Rights Guide, our book “Raising A New Generation of Patriots” and just completed the Cottage Meetings in Spanish. We have also produced several videos featuring our Latina moms doing promo pieces for Moms for America resources and Mom Vote. The “En Español” section of our website will launch in the next month with all the valuable resources these moms have been requesting.

CDC Lawsuit

When we first presented our idea of suing the CDC to top attorneys they told us everyone was looking for the smoking gun to sue them but they were too protected. But our Founder and President, Kimberly Fletcher, was convinced there was a way so we hired an attorney to do the research. After eight long months of searching every angle and even slightly related case, the verdict was in—we had a case.

We sent our findings to those same top attorneys, and they were floored with what we discovered. We are going after the PREP Act itself on two constitutional points. These top constitutional lawyers said this case could go all the way to the Supreme Court. One of the attorneys commented, “I can’t believe it was moms that found the smoking gun.”

We have compiled a top team of attorneys led by lead attorney, Erik Luckau and retained the law firm of Jeff Childress who is now the lead litigator in our case. Our team of legal and medical consultants include Michael Farris of Alliance Defending Freedom, Tom Fitton of Judicial Watch, the Goldwater Institute and several top medical professionals such as Dr. Robert Malone and Dr. Peter McCullough. We are now moving into the litigation phase of the case. We have twelve very good plaintiffs and expect to have the case in District Court by Spring.

Initiatives

We have reached over 125 thousand people across the country with school board training, candidate trainings, educational webinars, meetings and contact inquiries for school board issues.

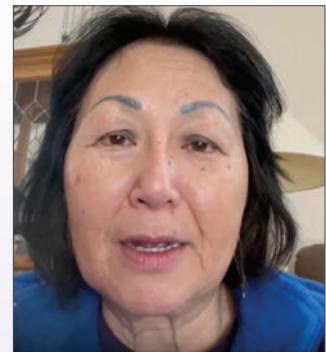

Dr. Kelly Kohl's testimony before Ohio House Committee

Dr. Kelly Kohls, Senior Director Schoolboard Leadership Project for Moms for America and Director of the National School Board Leadership Council spoke at the Ohio House Higher Education Committee in October on the H.B. No. 183 Bill regarding single-sex bathroom access in schools and universities. Kelly spoke about the harm that allowing transgender individuals into women's sports and into the safe spaces for teens and women in both schools and sports. Watch her testimony here.

School Board Leadership Project

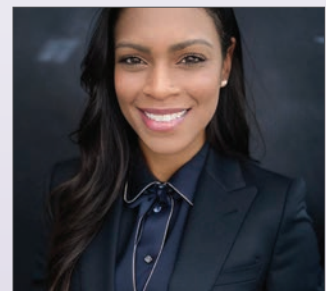

This year Kelly has trained 75 school board members, hosted or participated in 35 training webinars, and provided 500 private consultations and legal referrals. We have also filed and won 10 court cases and reversed over two dozen school district policies at the state and local levels. In addition, our work has led to resignations of school board members and superintendents in 7 school districts. Watch a video testimony here from Ivy, a school board member in Colorado.

Ivy from Colorado

Aly Legge, Director of Civic Engagement, released our School Board Ambassador training series.

Our ambassadors are trained on the proper roles of government pertaining to the school district. Training also includes how to build valuable relationships with those hired and elected in the school district to be the catalyst of change in their local schools. We have had 4 training sessions with 80 registrants joining this initiative, eager to learn more about becoming School District Ambassadors. These Ambassadors create a relational network with parents, teachers, and school board members in their school district and provide a powerful counter voice to the radical union agenda.

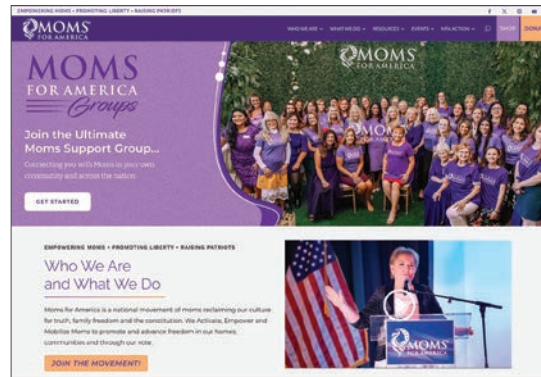

Our goal is to have a fully trained School District Ambassador in every one of the 13,452 school districts in the country.

Website Redesign

The importance of online accessibility and connectivity cannot be overstated. Our team has been hard at work on our fully updated and redesigned website. With greater visual appeal, ease of navigation, and more resources than ever, our new website will offer moms a lot.

Our tech team has had to meet the challenges of being deplatformed and censored for our content speaking the truth about transgender ideology and medical freedom. Tech giants can, without warning, disable our accounts, remove content, and prevent people from seeing our posts if they disagree with what we or our guests are saying. We are storing all of our content securely on our own servers to prevent the loss of any material going forward. Additionally, we are working to find vendors who support free speech and will offer unbiased and uninterrupted service. Our website averages 3 million page views annually. With our new, more user-friendly website we plan to double those numbers in 2024.

Podcast Update

The Moms for America Podcast continues to grow reaching record numbers 2023. We've had over 400,000 downloads and views across all platforms this year. Some of our most popular episodes include President Donald Trump, Nikki Haley, Vivek Ramaswamy, Kirk Cameron, Dr. Miriam Grossman, Riley Gaines and many moms with courageous stories.

Our audience continues to grow as we educate, empower, and inspire moms. Listen to some of our latest podcast episodes here.

Gender Confusion Press Conference

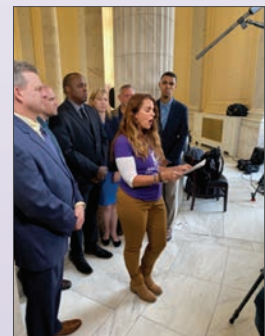

Moms for America held a press conference in Washington, DC to raise awareness and provide solutions to help support parents regarding this crucial issue. We support Rep. Moms for America Targeted As “Hate Group” By The SPLC

The Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) continues to attack and bully conservative groups like Moms for America. We joined several other organizations in a press conference in Washington, D.C., pushing back on this intimidation. We also met with elected representatives to bring awareness to this organization's outright false accusations.

Turning Point Partners with Moms for America to Get Out the Mom Vote

Moms for America joined forces with Turning Point USA to promote the adoption of a new app designed to facilitate get-out-the-vote (GOTV) efforts, which will provide grassroots organizers with key data enabling them to contact voters quickly and efficiently.

“Moms for America is a perfect partner for us on this project,” said Charlie Kirk, president of Turning Point Action. “With hundreds of thousands of moms all over the country – many of whom are actively engaged in politics at the state and local level – they’re going to be able to make the most of this technology and show the political establishment how valuable it can be to try new approaches to solving old problems.”

“This app is exactly what we need as we work to mobilize an army of moms to make a difference in elections up and down the ballot in 2024,” said Moms for America Founder and President, Kimberly Fletcher.

Moms for America hosted our 3rd Annual Mothers of Influence Awards luncheon on Friday, December 8, 2023 at the Mar-a-Lago Club! FCC Bill – Moms for America with John Rich

Moms for America spearheaded ground-breaking legislation in Texas championing the FCC Standards Bill, also known as the READER Act. This simple legislation protects children from inappropriate material in the public school. The bill began with the simple idea: “If you can’t show it on TV, and you can’t air it on the radio, you can’t have it in the classroom.”

Here’s an interview with John Rich and Moms for America President and CEO Kimberly Fletcher after the bill was signed into Texas Law on June 12. A similar bill was also passed in Louisiana in August. Moms for America Action works with state legislators to identify or draft bills that reflect the FCC Standard, protecting children from obscene, inappropriate content targeting 5 areas: classroom books, school library books, online curriculum, curriculum developers and adult instruction. An FCC Standard Bill is being introduced in 12 states in the 2024 Legislative session.

For additional information and to track status of the state bills, visit FCCStandard.com.

10 State Plan

In preparation for the state and local elections this year, as well as the 2024 elections, we have developed a 10 State Plan to engage and mobilize moms to get out the mom vote and empower them to vote their values with confidence. This very strategic, comprehensive, grassroots plan has a proven record of success. We know how the left wins because we found their entire playbook on the Harris County Texas Democratic Party website in 2009. We use their own playbook against them and have been successfully doing so since 2010. The only thing that has ever slowed us down or held us back is funding. Wherever we have the funds to launch the plan, we have wins.

Media & Marketing

Social Media Growth in 2023!

Despite being constantly blocked, shadow-banned and deplatformed from social media outlets from Vimeo to Facebook, Moms for America's social media has grown in 2023—thanks largely to Elon Musk taking over Twitter (now X).

After launching on Truth Social later this year, we went from 0 to 1,830 users. Facebook grew from 39,137 to 41,565 with our biggest spike on Instagram which grew from 8,188 followers to 22,379. After having our account permanently suspended and losing all our data, we are not back online (thanks to Elon Musk) and growing back our presence. This year we successfully went from 1,777 followers to 4,315.

	2022	2023		2022	2023

Media & Marketing

Earned and Print Media

Moms for America was featured and/or referenced in 125 articles this year. These include op-eds by our Founder and President, Kimberly Fletcher which were published in several prominent online publications including Fox News (here) and NEWSWEEK (see article here).

Marketing

In an effort to expand our brand and reach more moms, we launched a series of 10 ad campaigns across Meta platforms in November. The campaign aimed to resonate with mothers and like-minded individuals, fostering support for our mission by encouraging donations and sharing resources to champion the values of faith, family, and freedom throughout the nation. The campaigns had a huge impact.

Collectively, they reached an impressive milestone, engaging with 579,986 individuals. The ads themselves garnered a total of 621,523 views, significantly bolstering Moms for America's visibility with moms.

With our amazing marketing team of rockstar moms and the addition of our new marketing manager, Tarin Swain, we are poised and ready for even greater growth in 2024.

Our Amazing Team!

The reason we have so much success is the dedication and commitment of our rockstar team. We have an enormous pool of talented moms who make up the Moms for America family. We all work from home which allows us to offer flexible hours so we can get the work down around our family schedules. That is one of the biggest appeals of those who join our team. From young moms raising toddlers to single women caring for their parents, we have created an environment that allows moms to be moms while sharing their incredible skills and talents to fulfill our mission and support the thousands of moms who rely on us.

What Makes Moms for America Unique?

Moms for America is a national organization that focuses on supporting moms locally. While we do have a strong national presence in media, politics, and policy, it is our grassroots network that sets us apart. We have over 100 Moms for America groups, but we also have hundreds of affiliate groups we work with—moms that gathered after 2020 to protect their children from government overreach. They range from a small group of moms meeting together to thousands on a Facebook group. They may not adopt the specific Moms for America brand, but they are part of our network of moms' groups.

We are able to provide support, training, and resources to these groups they would not otherwise have access to. We can get local stories on national news, help videos go viral, provide press releases, graphics, marketing support, educational programs, and top-notch grassroots training to our local groups and affiliates allowing them to be more effective in guiding policy and participating in elections. It is local action creating national impact.

In addition, our Moms for America groups are locally branded. If moms just show up to school board meetings with Moms for America shirts, school board members look at them like a national organization butting their nose into their business. But if they show up with their California Moms for America or Dallas County Moms for America shirts, those elected representatives know they live there, work there, shop there, and vote there. That is a game-changer!

Moms who go through our training learn the power of building relationships and focusing on principle to effect policy. They don't just show up angry, they show up empowered and that leads to wins in promoting principles of liberty in the home, in their communities, and through their vote.
