

1. I. Sunshine Law

- Sunshine laws require government transparency to the public. Click on the link below to view a PDF of the Ohio Sunshine Law Manual – and look for something similar in your state.
- The Public Records Act and the Open Meetings Act videos are Ohio specific, but it is important for you to identify this type of information for your state. Click on the links below.
- There is free training done regarding Sunshine Laws in each State. Register for the next training online on your State's "Secretary of State" website. Anyone can attend these.
- Additionally, you can visit the link below to learn about submitting Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests for public documents.
- Watch the Executive Session with Judge Curt Hartman video at the link below. He gives in-depth details and answer questions on Executive Session Rules and Regulations in Ohio.
- View the White V King case document regarding transparency, and the Daily Times news article about how Adam White challenged the school board.
