

MomRise

SUMMIT SPEAKERS

ORANGE COUNTY, CA July 24, 2021

Jon Voight rose to stardom nearly 50 years ago and has stayed in the Hollywood spotlight ever since. He is an Academy Award-winning actor who has played a variety of roles in several acclaimed and popular films including The Champ, Mission Impossible, Enemy of the State and National Treasure. He has won four Golden Globe Awards and, in 2019, was awarded the National Medal of Arts. Jon has become a strong supporter of freedom, the Constitution and conservative causes. He has a great respect for those who serve in the military and has attended many events supporting military service members and Gold Star families.

Kimberly Fletcher is the president and founder of Moms for America® a national movement of moms to reclaim our culture for truth, family, freedom, and the constitution. She is the author of “WOMEN: America’s Last Best Hope”, contributing writer with NewsMax and Townhall.com and has appeared in numerous national media outlets including Fox News, OANN and the Rush Limbaugh Show. Kimberly is the wife of a retired Air Force Officer and mother of 8 children. She has made it her personal mission to educate and inspire the mothers of America to realize their immeasurable worth and powerful influence on society simply by being who they are.

Roxanne Beckford Hoge is an actor, entrepreneur and former candidate for California’s 46th Assembly District. She was born in Kingston, Jamaica. She emigrated from the island in the late 70s, graduated from boarding school in South Florida, and from Davidson College with a degree in Psychology in 1986. After working in public and community relations in Miami for Citibank and the Rouse Company, she arrived in Southern California in the late 80s to become a working actor appearing in television and movie roles even while marrying her husband and having and raising four children. Roxanne became a citizen of the United States after the turn of the century and keenly appreciates all the wonders of this great nation, especially all that California represents.

Peggy Hall is Founder of THE HEALTHY AMERICAN and a national leader in the freedom movement dedicated to “breathing life back into liberty.” Peggy is the former Director of Teacher Education at the University of California, Irvine and has been an educator for 30+ years. She has a bachelor’s degree in Political Science, a Master’s Degree in International Relations, and has years of experience as a health educator and community activist. Through her inspiring educational videos, hours of legal research, and online and in-person programs, Peggy empowers patriots all across the country to take action to make “positive waves of change” as we fight back this growing tidal wave of tyranny. Peggy is calling “all hands on deck” to defend life, liberty, truth and freedom.

Tamika Hamilton was born in Calvert County, Maryland in 1984. Estranged from her father and born to an underage mother, Tamika was raised by her loving grandparents, who were military veterans and farmers by trade, whom she credits with instilling in her the importance of public service. Upon graduating from high school, Tamika enlisted in the United States Air Force, where she served on active duty for over 14 years, deploying twice to the Middle East in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Tamika’s husband, Ray is also a veteran (US Navy) and continues their family’s public service as a local police officer. Tamika is the mother of children and is a Candidate for U.S. Congress.

Juleen Jackson is the Vice President of Moms for America® over Cottage Meetings. She is the mother of seven children, two of whom were lost in infancy. Juleen has actively served her community everywhere she’s lived. She’s served as Vice President for the DC Chapter of American Mothers, the President of the United Women’s Forum, supporting her husband, Al’s service in the Utah State Senate, and her son, Frank’s path to the NBA. Juleen is Certified Instructor for the Thomas Jefferson Center, oversees the Moms for America Cottage Meeting Project and teaches weekly Cottage Meetings virtually to thousands of moms annually.

Rose Tennent Rose Tennent has been a prominent figure for twenty years as a syndicated radio host, political pundit, author and speaker. She is a frequent guest host for Sean Hannity’s Radio Show, has been a regular guest on FOX NEWS and is a contributing writer with FOXNEWS.COM, AMERICAN THINKER, AMERICAN SPECTATOR, BREITBART NEWS. Rose is the founder of Meeting in the Middle, a bipartisan effort to provide humanitarian aid and relief to victims of natural disasters. She is co-author of the children’s book, Wilson Won’t Be Bullied, the host of Rose Unplugged and is an Advisory Board member of Women for Trump and Moms for America®

Tamara Farrah Tamra Farah has served in leadership roles in politics and public policy on the state and national level through consulting, public relations, communications, lobbying, and on campaigns, boards and committees. She has been married to her husband, Barry Farah, for 38 years and they have two adult children.

Debbie Kraulidis is the Vice President of Moms for America® over production and events. As a mom of three, Debbie has successfully combined a dynamic career in the television entertainment industry, politics, special events and music. Her resume includes working for many of the top-rated national television shows primarily covering national news stories, celebrities and movie premiers. Debbie is very involved in advocating for conservative policies and causes and has served on the leadership team of several Congressional, State Representative, County and Township campaigns, culminating in becoming an elected official herself.

Donica Hudson is an author, media personality, and speaker. During the 2016 election she spoke on the Women for Trump bust tour and attended roundtables with President-elect Trump and Eric and Lara Trump. Donica has led numerous citywide and regional prayer events, devotions at Billy Graham Evangelical Association, and prayer events at the Billy Graham Library and North Carolina Legislative Chapel. She authored a Prayer Proclamation, signed by the North Carolina Governor and then enacted during the 2016 Charlotte Riots. Donica lives in North Carolina with her family.

Tammy Hotsenpiller is an Author, Speaker, Life Coach and Leader of a national women's movement. She has a passion for equipping others to embrace their natural abilities, personal passions, and spiritual gifts. She is the founder and executive director of Women of Influence—an organization that seeks to educate and empower women in their spheres of influence. Tammy and her husband, Phil, are the co-founders of Influence Church in Anaheim Hills, California. Their innovative ministry reaches people of all ages and backgrounds, offering support and encouragement to those in the entertainment industry, stay-at-home moms, business executives, college students, and everyone in between. Tammy and Phil are the parents of three children and grandparents of seven grandchildren.

Brenda Lebsick has been a public school teacher for over 25 years, teaching all grade levels. She has taught general education, special education and alternative education. Brenda has an MA in Special Education from Chapman University and received teaching credentials from San Jose State and Azusa Pacific University. She is currently teaching Adapted PE in Santa Ana Unified. She was a school board member in Orange Unified School District from 2016-2020. She and her husband have been in ministry for nearly 30 years and have been married for 35 years. Her husband is a pastor of a Nazarene Church in Placentia, California. They have 2 grown children and one grandchild. Brenda has a website and YouTube channel about current educational issues called: www.Brenda4Kids.com.

Dr. Kelly Kohls is the mother of five children, all of whom attended public schools. She is an educator, businesswoman, former president of the Springboro Community Schools Board of Education and founder and president of the National Schoolboards Leadership Coalition (NSLC). Dr. Kohls speaks at gatherings across the country training school board members on how to be an effective steward of their community's public education system. She firmly believes it is absolutely imperative we fix our public schools, which have become a money funnel for adults to promote an anti-American political agenda.